ACT Prep Workshop

Spring 2010

ACT Prep

Are you a sophomore or junior looking for a way to prepare for your first ACT exam? Are you a junior or senior looking for a way to improve your ACT scores? Preparation for the specific format of the ACT can help supplement the subject-area education of the academic school year and lead to higher scores. Pius XI is now offering a Spring ACT Prep Class covering the English and Reading portions of the test, as well as the optional Writing section. Class size is limited to 20 students, so early registration is recommended.

Pius XI Junior Rebecca Vaclav writes, "I felt 100% more prepared for the test than I would have been with only the prep books that you can buy at Barnes and Noble or find online, because I was able to practice the tests with a real teacher who has knowledge of past students' struggles and what helped them succeed. After the class with Mrs. Sprinkman, I took the ACT for the first time and got a 32 cumulative score and a perfect score on the writing, which we had done samples of in the class. I know without this class I would have been much more nervous and would most definitely not have done so well. Thanks for offering the class!!"

Course Overview

This class will focus partially on general ACT test information and strategies, with a main focus on the English, Reading, and Writing portions of the test.

Class time will include individual work, small-group work and large-group work.

In order to get the most out of our time in class together, students will be expected to do some work (approximately 30–45 minutes) on their own between class meetings.

Instructor Info

Jennifer Sprinkman holds a current Wisconsin teaching license in English for grades 7–12.

She has 13 years of classroom teaching experience, with 12 of those years spent teaching at Pius XI. She also served as the Pius XI English Department Chairperson for 3 years.

Mrs. Sprinkman has over 6 years of experience in teaching ACT test preparation in English, Reading and Writing—the focus of her teaching for the past three years being as an ACT prep teacher and tutor with a nationally recognized and accredited learning center.

Her BA was earned at Marquette University and her MS in Education was earned at Mount Mary College.
