The Many Faces of Pius XI High School

Wait No More For Godot

Pius XI Performing Arts' winter production, Waiting for Godot, is currently playing in the Black Box theatre. The play follows two men, Vladimir and Estragon, as they sit on a road by a tree, waiting for a man named Godot. As they search for various ways to occupy their time and amuse themselves, they reflect on their own lives, as well as the nature of their world. Directed by Peter Reeves, Waiting for Godot is a thought-provoking and utterly hilarious show well worth a look. Playing in the Black Box Thursday to Saturday at 7:00 PM, and on Sunday at 2:00PM. Tickets may be bought at the Pius XI Bookstore.

Popes Update—Girls Basketball

Pius XI Girls' Basketball continues to do well. If you want to get involved in cheering on our Lady Popes, come to a game!

-  2/12—at Catholic Memorial
-  2/18—at Pius XI vs. Kettle Moraine
-  2/26—at Waukesha West
-  3/3—at Pius XI vs. Waukesha North (SENIOR NIGHT)

Remember, your Lady Popes are currently ranked #5 in the area, and #5 in the State!

Floor-o-SCOPEs...

See what's in YOUR future this week!

First Floor, Library, and Fieldhouse...

Run, jump, scream—this weekend will give you something to go crazy about.

Second Floor...

On Valentine's Day, you will find yourself in the presence of someone who feels exactly the same way for you as they did for the goldfish they won in third grade.

Third Floor...

Sometimes, the hardest thing to say is the easiest thing to text.

Fourth Floor...

This Valentine's Day, remember...TAC romance can be an interesting way to go.

Fifth Floor...

Without Valentine's Day, there would be no holiday to display those funny candy hearts. Eat a few...enjoy.

Sixth Floor...

The almost-blizzard might have you in a state of cabin fever, so get out this week and attack that snow.

Got News for PeriSCOPE?

Thank you so much! Your opinions in helping to make PeriSCOPE better are helping a ton! Look for our new section, Inforumation, for news on what Student Forum is partaking in. And keep the feedback coming! We appreciate it more than you know...you are all an instrumental part in keeping PeriSCOPE working great.

Thanks! 🙏
