Popes Update—Jersey Shore

Pius XI Girls' Basketball is on a roll! The game against Waukesha South was televised as "Game of the Week" on the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel's high school sports segment, "Preps Plus". The theme was "Jersey Shore", and Pius students really got into it...showing their Popes Pride!

Floor-o-SCOPEs...

See what's in YOUR future this week!

First Floor, Library, and Fieldhouse...

Motorcycles may be on display at the Harley Davidson Museum, but they are not toys...stick to your usual form of transportation.

Second Floor...

Over the Winterlude week, watch out for sixth floor windows...things are known to "fall" out of them.

Third Floor...

You have the perfect date, the perfect outfit, and the perfect Winterlude plans...don't let anything spill on you during dinner!

Fourth Floor...

The Winterlude theme may be "Glow in the Snow", but spray tanning is NOT the way to go!

Fifth Floor...

Teachers volunteer to chaperone, so be nice when you see them...otherwise, there might be a pop quiz in your future.

Sixth Floor...

Not many people can pull off super tight bubble sequin leather party dresses...keep that in mind.
