

Founded in 1929, Pius XI is a private high school in the state offering, an award-winning, values-based, college-ready curriculum in a personalized setting and caring Catholic environment.

Pius XI High School celebrates its diversity by welcoming and respecting students of all ethnic and religious backgrounds.

Fr. Bob Carney was on staff at Pius XI for more than 35 years until his death in 2003, touching the lives of all he met. One of his greatest concerns was keeping a Pius XI education accessible to families from all economic backgrounds.

Proceeds from the Father Carney Memorial Golf Outing and Benefit help the students of Pius XI High School.
