LETTER FROM THE CHIEF ADMINISTRATOR

Melinda Skrade, Ph.D.

Pius XI High School is blessed with the legacies of the decades that began with the organizational leadership of the Pallottine Fathers and the intellectual direction of the School Sisters of St. Francis. It is a remarkable history filled with the achievements of more than 26,000 graduates who lead lives grounded in the spiritual values and academic preparation guided by Pius XI High School. Our Pius XI alums continue to make us proud while our educational community undertakes key initiatives to advance our students and their future life opportunities.

Over the past year, strategic initiatives in three key areas have resulted in significant gains. Each initiative was carried out by Pius XI Board Committees, comprised of leaders from the Board, our hard-working faculty, and Pius XI Parents. More importantly, each initiative reflects our vision to position Pius XI as the leading Catholic co-educational high school. Of course, it begins with the mission:

Mission

Pius XI High School welcomes young men and women from all backgrounds into our care, preparing them in the Catholic educational tradition for success in college, while empowering them to lead their lives in the light of the Gospel.

The new mission reflects the power of the Pius XI past and also marks the shift from its comprehensive programming to a commitment to college preparatory programming for every admitted student. Pius XI is distinct in its mission to serve students of all abilities by providing the broadest college-ready curriculum and support.

Academics

During the past year, initiatives also strategically targeted academic achievements. Early results already indicate significant progress:

- The overall ACT average exceeds state and national levels

- The top 25% of the Class of 20XI achieved a score of 30 or above on their ACT

- Our college level courses set a record with over 400 students

- Three-fourths of our Class of 20XI earned college credits in Advanced Placement national testing.

Student successes are supported by extraordinary instructors.

Capital

Most significantly, Pius XI has expanded its horizons. As alums and donors, you can be proud that Pius XI is home to award-winning centers of excellence which include Engineering, Applied Economics/Finance, Special Studies, and the nationally-recognized Arts programs. We are also distinct from other high schools as a leader in K-16 partnerships that span the region. In the past year, the Pius XI Performing Arts Academy grew in enrollment, now representing more than 1,000 grade school students!

Construction began on The Father Robert V. Carney Performing Arts Center, home of the Wendy Lindsey Theater, August 18, 20XI. The PAC will support every instructional field as well as major events as a community resource. We invite you to join us in this important time by touring the project this year. Dedication ceremonies will include our proud donors.

Pius XI Future

Future Pius XI students will be entering Pius XI at a most exciting time. The single greatest challenge we share together is to be able to provide an opportunity for students to attend Pius XI High School through scholarship awards. This year, we commit ourselves to this strategic initiative in an all-school effort to help Pius XI families.

LETTER FROM THE LATE BOARD CHAIR

Norm Balthasar

The mission of Pius XI High School is the cornerstone that grounds the past, present and future. As a proud Pius XI supporter, you have been instrumental to the school's successes and achievement of institutional goals. Over the past year, we committed ourselves as a Board and partnered with the Pius XI school community to begin construction of the Father Robert V. Carney Performing Arts Center, home of the Wendy Lindsey Theater. Last May, at the Harbor House, we celebrated and received a blessing from Archbishop Listecki. Special thanks to Michael Cudahy and the Cudahy Foundation for their roles in making this dream come true for future Pius XI students. This worthy project is well underway and due to be completed in late spring. We look forward to the dedication.

Pius XI High School also achieved a record-setting million dollar fund-raising goal for the second year in a row, marking significant growth in the scholarship program. Key fundraising events that frame our academic year—the Principal's Dinner, the Annual Auction and the Father Carney Golf Outing—raised almost $200,000. These special events provide extraordinary settings for our community to gather, celebrate, and focus our energies on a greater good. For example, the Pius XI Auction drew more than 300 people to the historic Hilton City Center. On March 24, 2012 the event will mark the 25th anniversary of this Pius XI community event. The leadership of our volunteers on events each year, and over the years, significantly supports student scholarships. The same holds true for the sacrificial giving you designate for scholarships as donors. Pius XI is blessed to receive gifts that range from $5 to $50,000. Scholarship dollars are distributed with an expectation that students will meet college-preparatory standards.

On behalf of the Pius XI Board of Directors, we thank you for your strong support during challenging economic times and consider the successes of the past year as shared successes with you. It is your commitment and dedication to Pius XI High School that made it all possible. We are counting on and grateful for your support.

With sincere gratitude,

Norm Balthasar

Norm Balthasar
Pius XI Board Chairman
Retired Chief Operating Officer, Fiserv, Inc.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD CHAIR

Brian Henke

There will never be another Norm. For the past six years, Pius XI High School and the Pius XI Community were blessed to be served by Norm Balthasar in his roles on the Board Finance Committee, as the Vice Chair, and for the past four years, as Chairman of the Board of Directors. During that period, I served alongside Norm on the Pius XI Board. Key strategic initiatives led by Norm and the Pius XI Board of Directors positioned Pius XI High School to build off of its strengths while preparing for new achievements. Those efforts included:

- Reorganization of advancement and development practices which resulted in reaching one-million dollar fund-raising goals for the past two years as well as the completion of fundraising for the Father Robert V. Carney Performing Arts Center.
- Attracting and recruiting strong Board leaders, exemplars in their own fields, to direct and guide the school through a focused review of the school's mission, academics, athletics, and faith-life development for our Pius XI students. Early outcomes indicate positive trending in student achievements and teacher awards, introduction of Kairos retreats, record-setting ACTs, Advanced Placement scores, and a state championship in basketball.
- Development of a shared vision and strategic growth in funding sources in order to provide an affordable Pius XI education to every worthy student through named scholarships, foundational partnerships, endowed gifts and school events. Over 1.4 million dollars were awarded last year to hard-working students.

The school is well positioned for its future due to the success of these strategic initiatives. These combined efforts have already resulted in a 20% increase in applications to Pius XI High School.

We continue to commit ourselves to increasing scholarships to help make a Pius XI education more affordable for hopeful students.

On behalf on the Board of Directors, I thank you for your extraordinary support of Pius XI High School. We look forward to strategic planning this year as we prepare for the next chapter in the history of Pius XI.

With gratitude,

Brian Henke

HIGHLIGHTS

Every year, Pius XI High School develops strategic initiatives with the goal of advancing educational opportunities for our students. As with everything we do, it begins with our mission. Last year, the school community reviewed the mission to ensure it continues to represent the goals of Pius XI. The mission strengthens both the rich institutional legacies of the Pallottine and Franciscan orders as well as the guiding principles for the future.

Our Pius XI students continue to make us proud every day. Here are just a few highlights of accomplishments in the classroom, in the athletic arena, in the art studio, on the stage and in the community at large from the past year.

In the classroom

Engineering students earned more than $2.6 million dollars in college scholarship awards and more than 186 college credits under Project Lead the Way® last year.

Overall, the class of 20XI earned more than $14.2 million in college scholarship offers and three graduates received military appointments.

In the athletic arena

The Lady Popes girls basketball team was back-to-back Conference Champions and made a return trip to the state tournament!

Two new track school records were set.

In the art studio

Year after year, our Visual Arts students sweep local and regional Scholastic Gold Key and Silver Key awards. This year, 39 students won Gold Key awards and two students won Silver Key awards.

A student was selected as a finalist for the 2011 YoungArts Program. He was among 150 finalists selected from more than 5,000 applicants from across the country and one of only 23 visual artists named as finalists.

On the stage

Twenty-three perfect scores and seven special commendations were awarded to Pius XI High School students who competed at the Wisconsin School Music Association State Solo and Ensemble Festival. The special commendations were awarded by the judges for the best performances at the festival.

In addition, 10 Pius XI High School students were selected to participate in the WSMA Honors Program. Pius XI High School is ranked number 1 in the state of all private high schools in the number of students accepted into the WSMA Honors Program, and number 7 in the state of all public and private high schools.

In the community

Pius XI is dedicated to helping students work towards the kingdom of God through both the development of their moral and spiritual selves and through exercising the compassion of Jesus within our community and beyond. A renewed and warmly received retreat program, including our first Kairos retreat for Junior and Seniors was established. And in the spirit of St. Francis, our students reached out to the poor through more than a dozen organizations, including a new tutoring initiative at our neighboring elementary school – St. Vincent Pallotti.

FACULTY SPOTLIGHT

Roger Radke

“The more you make education hands-on and real life, the better it is.”

For Roger Radke '74 it is not only about inspiring future brokers or finance directors, but also teaching students to be solid consumer investors with financial skills. Social Science Department Chair and Herb Kohl Fellow, he has been teaching at Pius XI for 32 years. An alum himself, he believes the more you make education hands-on and real life, the better it is.

And that is exactly what he did when he started the Center for Applied Finance and Economics (CAFÉ). “I wanted the students to see the connection between what happens in the world and how it affects the stock market,” Roger said. “The CAFÉ allows students to test out theories in investments based on real life, in a safe environment.”

Another way students get hands-on experience is through the Marquette University Business Case Competition. During this competition students are given a real-life business problem and asked to come up with a solution and present it to the judges.

It was this competition that inspired him to develop the Applied Business Concepts class. It brings together economics, business law and accounting in a practical situation. Outside speakers from the business world are brought in a few times a month so students see the relevance of real business issues.

Roger even finds a way to make history hands-on. For Roger it is critical to connect past history to today and help students understand how the causes of the past still appear today.

“History is so important - it may not necessarily repeat itself – but sometimes it sure looks similar.” Roger said “The learning of the facts allows us to analyze and interpret what is happening today and give it meaning.”

Mary Christensen

“You don’t have to be a native speaker, you just have to try and communicate.”

Mary Christensen’s passion for Spanish and teaching began back in high school when she traveled to Spain twice. Since then, her goal has been to enable students to use their Spanish language skills in a practical way.

Mary inspires students in her classroom through activities that are enjoyable and educational. “You have to give students an experience where the language is real to them - one that includes not only speaking and understanding the language, but being able to communicate and understand the culture,” Mary said.

Mary has been teaching Spanish for eight years – five of them at Pius XI High School. She is the World Languages Department Chair and also a Herb Kohl Fellow.

She feels the most powerful way to appreciate another language is to actually travel to a native-speaking country. The World Languages department plans a trip every other year. They went to Costa Rica this past summer and Spain two years ago.

“It is very cool when students see for the first time other cultures and really old buildings and interact with the people that live there,” Mary said.

In addition to traveling more often, Mary also would like to be able to use technology and find a sister school in the world to partner with on a weekly basis that would allow face-to-face conversations with students in other countries.

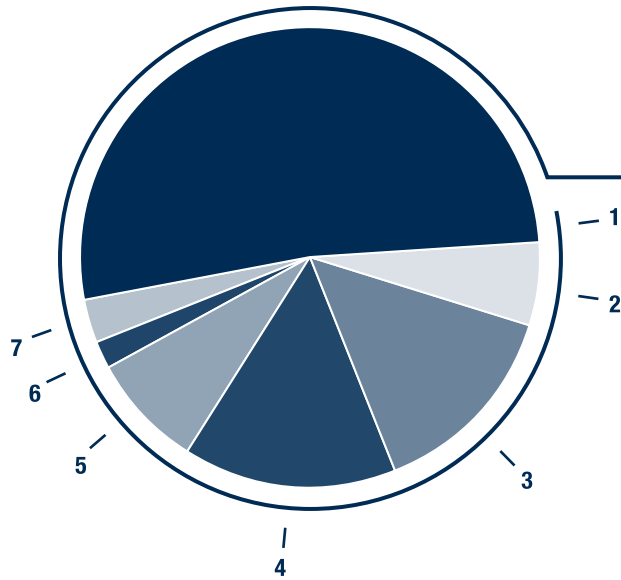

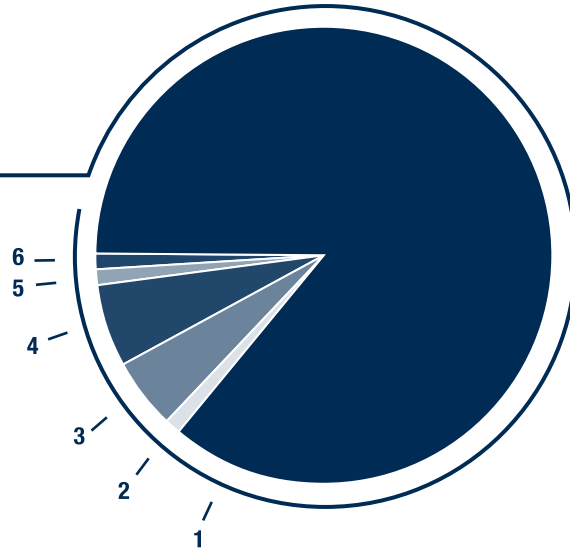

In addition to her work in the classroom, Mary also helps coordinate hosting of students from Spain in the summer with Pius XI families. And she serves on the board for the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese and organizes the Concurso Oral Spanish Pronunciation Test, a competition for more than 500 students from across the state.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

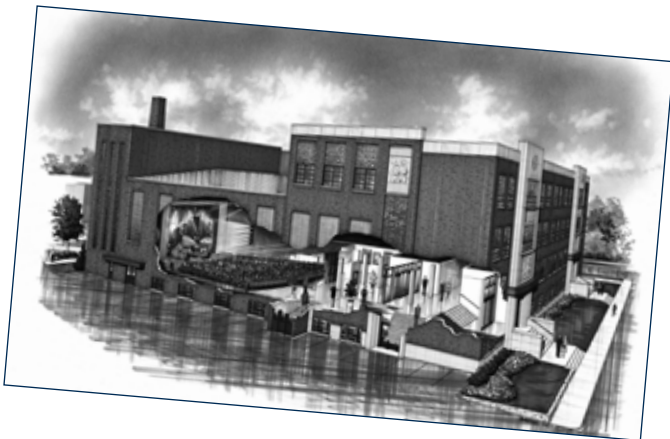

For well over two decades, Pius XI High School has dreamed of having a home of its own for the renowned Performing Arts program. This long-time dream became a reality this summer, when construction began on the Father Robert V. Carney Performing Arts Center and Wendy Lindsey Theater. The Center is being constructed in the footprint of the Old Gym and is the culmination of a two-part, 10-year capital campaign which raised more than $3 million in private donations.

Back in 2003, The Cudahy Foundation was our first major donor. Their exceptional gift acknowledged the success and importance of the Performing Arts programs and allowed us to believe that it would and could actually be built some day.

Through the generosity of Norm and Susan Balthasar, the new performing arts center is named after Father Robert V. Carney, SAC (1939-2003) who devoted his entire priesthood to the service of Pius XI. The 500-seat theater is named after Wendy Lindsey (1956-2009), proud Pius XI mom of Dawn Lindsey '02 and Renee Lindsey '04 who attended nearly every Pius XI production. By bearing these names, the center pays tribute to the ongoing dedication, investment and service of both our founding order, the Pallottines, and our parent/student community.

We are grateful to the more than 1,500 donors who have contributed to the Campaign for Inspiring Lives. We are pleased to acknowledge the following donors who have made a gift to the campaign in fiscal year 2010-2011.

As an alumnus, a parent of four Pius XI students, and a current Board member, I am excited to witness the creation of the Father Robert V. Carney Performing Arts Center project. The school's original gymnasium was the site of countless athletic accomplishments. Now that the athletic programs have a new home, it is fitting that this historic building should be converted into a cutting-edge performing arts center where future Pius XI students will be able to express themselves through music, dance, and theater. I am proud to see Pius XI High School continue its great tradition of excellence in the classroom, in athletics, and in the arts. My sincerest congratulations to all those who made this dream a reality.
