

Special Studies Teacher

Pius XI Catholic High School is hiring a teacher to work in our Special Studies Department for the 2023-24 school year. We are looking for an educator who is able to work effectively within a diverse school community and collaborate with all stakeholders to ensure that students with special needs are able to access and engage in the general education curriculum. The teacher must be able to implement a variety of instructional strategies and provide needed accommodations to students in grades 9-12.

Pius XI Catholic High School is the most diverse Catholic High School in the state and strives to offer each student an education that will prepare them for college or a successful career. We serve students of all backgrounds and abilities. Our community values and celebrates Integrity, Inclusion, Excellence, Community, Service as we work together to enthusiastically redefine educational excellence in the City of Milwaukee.

This full-time position requires the Special Education teacher to:

- Possess strong knowledge, skills, and experience in working with students with specific learning disabilities, ADHD, and health diagnoses such as anxiety
- Possess strong knowledge of secondary education curriculum
- Write and maintain Accommodation Plans
- Personalize instructional practices
- Develop and nurture positive relationships with students
- Maintain a structured classroom environment
- Understand how to use data to inform instructional practices
- Communicate effectively with students, parents/guardians, and colleagues
- Be organized and detail-oriented
- Work collaboratively while also possessing the ability to make decisions independently
